Package changes

We know that changing your package can be confusing at times, so we'll group everything you've added and removed together.

Credits (for services removed)

If you remove a service mid-month, we need to adjust your services and credit you for the advance period you've paid for and not used.

These items won't appear in 'Your package' or any future bill (unless changed).

Charges (for services added)

If you added a service mid-month, we need to adjust your services and charge you from the date it was activated up until the end of your previous charge period.

These items have been added to your account and will appear in 'Your package' on this bill also.
